Cindy Jackson's ability to seek out the core of unique leadership challenges has made her a sought-after coach, speaker, and master facilitator. She helps her clients increase their capacity and leadership impact. Her approach to leadership consulting and coaching draws on her 25 years of experience as a senior executive at a multinational corporation. Cindy unfailingly brings an engagement program, a vision, a coaching session — and a room — to life.

As a thought-partner and catalyst for change, Cindy assists her clients to become more effective leaders who can navigate complex situations. Leveraging the pLink Leadership framework, she draws on compassion and deep listening skills to guide leaders into alignment with their purpose and values. Her history as a top-level decision maker gives her an intimate understanding of the expectations and challenges encountered by senior leaders, and she is highly skilled at supporting leadership development and a strong leadership culture within an organization.

Cindy's lifelong love of learning has resulted in a hunger for her own development. A true animal lover, Cindy would happily house a llama or a parrot—but for now, she and her husband keep it simple with three dogs and a cat at home in Minneapolis.
